

Attention FDA

0581 '00 APR -6 P1:43

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

*I've been using and wearing aid for 34 years
I don't need the damned FDA telling what I need
FDA should pay for exam plus hearing aid*

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

I had a specific list under an aid. It wasn't any better than one I had

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

we have to trust government

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Absolutely
